Takes Lumber For The Orient

Vermont's Cargo Believed to Be for Use of Russian Government in Far East.

The big steam freighter Vermont arrived down the river Sunday and is lying off the O. R. & N. dock. A barge is alongside her and there is being loaded into the Vermont 200,000 feet of lumber. The Vermont is to draw 25 feet 8 inches when her cargo is finished, and it will be impossible for her to get to sea until Saturday, although the work of lightening will be concluded by tonight.

The lumber which is being loaded into the Vermont is of railroad-tie size except as to length. It is considered remarkable that this vessel has a full cargo of lumber of this size, while two other similar partial cargoes are being loaded at Portland and full cargoes at Tacoma and Vancouver, B. C. The cargoes are shipped for order and their destination is, of course, unknown. It is generally believed that the lumber is for the Russian government, and this is taken as another evidence of the czar's aggression in the far east.

TWO GENERAL CARGOES.

Two German ships reached port last night—the Christel, from Antwerp, and the Arthur Fitzgerald, from Hamburg. Both vessels bring general cargoes, although cement constitutes the greater part of each. The vessels did not get in until a late hour and are still in quarantine. Whether or not any portions of the cargoes are to be delivered here could not be learned last evening.

MARINE NOTES.

The steamer Despatch and Charles Nelson arrived yesterday from San Francisco.

The British ship Duns Law has arrived down the river. She has a full cargo of grain for South Africa. The schooner Glendale cleared yesterday for San Francisco. She has 250,000 feet of lumber which was taken on at the Hume mill.

The steamer Harrison arrived around from the sound Sunday to take the run of the Elmore while the latter vessel is laid up for repairs.

The steamer Alliance arrived down the river yesterday and will depart early this morning for coast ports. She has a full cargo and took on at Astoria a large quantity of beer.

The schooner Two Brothers arrived down the river yesterday. She has 750,000 feet of lumber from Vancouver and St. Helens and goes to San Francisco.

The revenue cutter Perry arrived in port yesterday and will go into winter quarters here. The Perry is lying off the Flavel wharf and is an attractive object on the broad bosom of the Columbia.

WARM ROAST IS GIVEN BRYAN

Unmercifully Scored by Lawyer in Bennett Will Case.

New Haven, Conn., Oct. 26.—In the Bennett will case tonight Judge Stoddard, Mrs. Bennett's attorney, gave W. J. Bryan, who is seeking a bequest of $50,000 left by Bennett, an unmerciful scoring. He impugned Bryan's honesty and assailed his morals, and said the efforts Bryan is using to gain the legacy show how deeply he is steeped in avarice.

CONFESSIONS OF A PRIEST.

Rev. John S. Cox, of Wake, Ark., writes: "For 12 years I suffered from yellow jaundice. I consulted a number of physicians and tried all sorts of medicines, but got no relief. Then I began the use of Electric Bitters and feel that I am now cured of a disease that had me in its grasp for 12 years." If you want a reliable medicine for liver and kidney trouble, stomach disorder or general debility, get Electric Bitters. It's guaranteed by Charles Rogers. Only 50 cents.

Gammage, pastor of the Lawn Avenue Baptist church of Kansas City, Kas., resigned his pastorate at the evening service last night at the request of the board of deacons, because of his alleged heretical teachings. Many members of the church withdrew with Rev. Gammage, who says he will establish a new church. J. W. Mode, chairman of the board of deacons, said: "The action was taken because we did not believe Mr. Gammage was preaching the true Baptist religion. He is an advocate of divine healing and believes men can become as whole or sanctified that they can be without sin."

SAVES TWO FROM DEATH.

"Our little daughter had an almost fatal attack of whooping cough and bronchitis," writes Mrs. W. K. Haviland, of Armonk, N. Y., "but, when all other remedies failed, we saved her life with Dr. King's New Discovery. Our niece, who had consumption in an advanced stage, also used this wonderful medicine and today she is perfectly well." Desperate throat and lung diseases yield to Dr. King's New Discovery as to no other medicine on earth. Infallible for coughs and colds. 50c and $1.00 bottles guaranteed by Chas. Rogers. Trial bottles free.

Stole Big Sum And Then Eloped

Young New York Couple Captured at Fashionable Hotel at Vancouver, B. C.

New York, Oct. 26.—"Clarence Leonard of East Orange, N. J., and his young wife have been arrested here," says a Vancouver, B. C., special to the World. "They are detained at the request of the New York police. Leonard, who is only 20 years of age, is accused of embezzling $10,000 belonging to the New York firm for which he worked."

"On the person of the young couple was found $9,200, the young woman having eight $1000 bills. The remainder of the money was in smaller denominations and was found in Leonard's clothing."

"The Leonards were arrested in the most fashionable hotel here. They arrived a couple of days ago. Leonard has agreed to return to the United States to stand trial. The arrests were made by the local police on telegraphic descriptions from New York."

Young Leonard was employed in the financial department of Haskins & Sells, public accountants, in this city. He disappeared October 13 with $10,075 of the firm's funds, secured, it is alleged, through forged checks passed upon two New York banks. It was part of young Leonard's duty to make the deposits and to draw the money from the banks for the current uses of the firm. The day before Leonard disappeared, Miss Katherine Miller, also a resident of East Orange, was reported missing. It was stated by her intimates that they had long planned an elopement, but could not obtain sufficient funds. The young woman, who is six years older than Leonard, declared after their arrest that they had been married after starting from New York.

BROKE INTO HIS HOUSE.

S. Le Quinn of Cavendish, Vt., was robbed of his customary health by inveterate chronic constipation. When Dr. King's NewLife Pills broke into his house, his trouble was arrested and now he's entirely cured. They're guaranteed to cure, 25c at Chas. Rogers' drug store.
